

Author resumes

Adrienn Orosz

Adrienn Orosz holds degrees in Public Administration Management (BA and MSc) and Sociology (MA). She is currently a PhD student at the Doctoral School of Mental Health Sciences at Semmelweis University. As a researcher at the Youth Research Institute, she contributes to the Institute's work through the analysis of generational patterns. Her academic and qualitative research focuses on family sociology, involved fatherhood, childcare, and perceptions of parenting roles.

Levente Székely

Levente Székely, PhD graduated in Sociology from the Faculty of Social Sciences at Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE) and was awarded his PhD by Corvinus University of Budapest. He is Director of the Youth Research Institute and Head of the Sociology Workshop at the MCC School of Social Sciences and History. He has led the large-scale national youth surveys conducted in Hungary. In addition to youth affairs, his principal research interests include new media, the information society, cultural consumption, and financial literacy.

Boldizsár Csizmadia

Boldizsár Csizmadia graduated with a first-class BA with distinction in Philosophy, Politics and Economics from Corvinus University of Budapest. He also completed the University Programme at Mathias Corvinus Collegium (MCC) within the School of Social Sciences and History. During his studies, he specialised in political economy, academic writing, and research. His undergraduate dissertation examined the potential introduction of the euro in Hungary.

Gergely Réti

Dr Gergely Réti earned his law degree from the Faculty of Law and Political Sciences at Pázmány Péter Catholic University, where he is currently pursuing a PhD. He is a researcher and youth policy expert at the Youth Research Institute, Executive Commissioner and Head of Education at Mathias Corvinus Collegium (MCC), and a lecturer at the MCC School of Law. His research and publications focus primarily on youth affairs, youth policy, and constitutional law.

Youth

and Generation Studies

2026 Volume 3. Issue 1.

YGS

ygs.hu

YOUTH
RESEARCH INSTITUTE

info@ygs.hu